NARRATIVE:

Ruben Franco is a documented gang member with and an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 18. His convictions include possession of dangerous weapons, possession of a firearm by felon, assault with a deadly weapon causing great bodily injury, possession of a controlled substance for sale, vehicle theft, identity theft, driving under the influence, forgery, receiving stolen property, resisting arrest, possession of a controlled substance, and failing to report. He has served multiple state prison terms the longest a 3 year term for receiving stolen property. Franco was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on October 22nd, 2011. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in July 2014 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Franco qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for possession of dangerous weapons is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history, gang member status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
